

Reclaiming Our Voices

Edited by Jean Frederickson

This book brings together 22 different voices to illustrate what can happen when the principles of bilingual education and critical pedagogy jointly inform the recurring, regenerating, and dialectical union of reflection and action characteristic of praxis. Reclaiming Our Voices: Bilingual Education, Critical Pedagogy, and Praxis will be of interest to all educators who dare to hope that the unfinished project of democracy is still possible.

Member Price: $1.00

Non-Member Price: $2.00